

eyes within eyes

startling
seeing now
what I did not see

blue within blue
light within light

hidden
not looked for
presence

what physical reality in the mechanics of seeing

changes

the reality of your eyes reflected blue
but not the blue within reflected light
but not the light within
to clarity
depth
open tunnels
trusting light

light within light

what psychological truth
changes
frozen lightness and darkness

questioned, perhaps by pulse
by heartbeat
but
mentally imprinted
endorsed and fixed
a not knowing
and not seeing
cast as an acceptable
mystery

forged as
an uneasy alliance
between you and my fear

admittedly probed in our touching
which forgets all images lives for its own fingers creates its own pathways of energy and light through all that we are

each to each

seeing so much now

depth
open tunnels

dreams
within dreams

if only
