

of course it would be fun

of course it would be fun
to play with you

with your skin
and mine
with your muscles
and mine
your breath
and mine
with your sense of delicious self
and mine

oh, it would be fun
to see you relax
and laugh
and play
sweet games together

to feel you
and feel |
dancing from room to room

to be held and to hold

to lose each and us
in fun and in laughter
be peaceful and melt
one to another

ah, but we have serious lives to lead
big tasks and bother

and of course it would be fun is another story which may never be told

which doesn't mean
it wouldn't be fun

of course it would be fun
to ride waves with you share waves
too

and who knows
maybe someday
we will

play

boo

Bill Eberle 2006
© 2006 William C. Eberle