

we know so much

we can't know
what it's all about

on the surface maybe

not in our deep
sense of what is

we do know courage
when it happens

and we know what kindness is
when it is there
and when it is not

drops of truth
into each
of us

into the well
of our existence

true knowing

we know so much
