

I feel you

I feel you

running inside muscles
along sinews
mixed into joints
moving with me along bones and marrow

rippling all along my surfaces and in my flesh and life hovering strands of you intertwined
in my energy

As I sit quietly
and as I move
I am different
because of your presence
these awarenesses
of what you are
in me

there
and here
all along
the inside
and outside
parts
of me

I feel you
