

instead

instead of me saying
well . . .
you say you like me
and you say
you don't love me

I say
hey

you love me

the form
and extent
of love
are not its measure

because you are paying attention
which is sacred
telling the truth
which is sacred

becoming you
which is sacred

the gift
which has
come down
upon me

is to love

see you
hear you
and feel you
and say to you
wow

say
I love you

to fully accept
all motion
and stillness
in you
all motion
and stillness
in me

to be a feather
trusting
the wind

Bill

2006

© 2006 William C. Eberle