

it's interesting

it's interesting, knowing you are so close and not coming up to give you a hug hold you close

respecting the short distance between us and the time apart
as a way of loving

it's interesting
making peace
with what is going on
in my heart now
as I feel here
without needing to feel there letting the broth of my emotions simmer gently

become richer
more complex

it's interesting
